

Traveling is fun 2017-2018

Tomoko ITO

Do you like traveling? Where have you been? Have you ever been abroad? Sakura loves traveling! So do I.

Tomoko: Hi, Sakura. Long time no see. How have you been?

Sakura: Hi, Tomoko sensei. I'm always fine. Guess what! I visited so many places so far.

Tomoko: Really? Where did you go, Sakura?

Sakura: I visited Brugge, Belgium. It was in fall of 2017. Rebeca took me to Belgium. Look at the picture 1. It was so beautiful.

Tomoko: Yes, I know! I got a message from Rebeca saying "Way to Belgium, Sakura comes with me!" via Ms.Ota. I can see a nice river view and a boat filled with people.

In the picture 2, you and Rebeca are so cute by the traditional door or something? Where was it?

Sakura: I don't remember... By the way, Belgium is famous for its chocolate.

Tomoko: Chocolate in Belgium! I love it. Last week, Belgium had a football game against Japan in the FIFA world cup. Did you watch the game?

Sakura: Yes, Belgium won the game against Japan by a score of 3 to 2. It was a very exciting game, wasn't it?

Tomoko: Yes, it was. Then, where were you after visiting Belgium?

Sakura: I went to Berlin, Germany (See the picture 3). I visited the Berlin Wall. It was a guarded concrete barrier which physically and ideologically divided Berlin from 1961 to 1989. Now, there are various paintings on the wall.

Tomoko: Awesome, Sakura. Very famous place. Thank you Rebeca for your reporting from the world & supporting Sakura. Arigato.
